

1st Annual Tribal Courts Conference

Strengthening Tribal Courts

August 6-7, 2009

About this Event:

This conference includes sessions on the following topics:

- Child Support Enforcement
- Recent Developments in Domestic Violence Laws (Firearms disqualification- Provisions of the VAWA)
- Court Budgets, Grants Management and Funding Opportunities
- How to Develop a Strategic Plan for Tribal Courts
- Recent Developments in Tribal Criminal Jurisdiction and Juvenile Delinquency
- Recent Developments in Indian Child Welfare and Child Deprivation
- Achieving Full Faith and Credit through the Law and through Comity
- The Importance of Court Orders in Child Welfare Cases
- Ethical Considerations for Tribal Courts
- Developing Codes and Policies
- Minnesota Tribal Courts
- Basic Court Administration and Personnel Management
- Learning from Traditional Dispute Resolution Methodology

Registration information is on our website at www.law.und.edu/tji. There is no registration fee for this conference. Limited scholarships are available!

Lodging:

Sheraton Bloomington Hotel, 7800 Normandale Boulevard, Minneapolis, MN.

For room reservations, call (952) 835-7800. A room block is under Group Code: Tribal Judicial Institute at a rate of $119 per night. Rooms must be booked by Thursday, July 31, 2009. You can also book online at:

<http://www.starwoodmeeting.com/Book/tribajudicial>.

Please feel free to use your BJA training dollars in your grants to attend this training. In addition, please encourage others within your tribal organizations and communities to attend this training as this is an event being held with sponsorship of the Department of Justice. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact Melissa Aaker at the number or email listed below:

University of North Dakota School of Law Tribal Judicial Institute

215 Centennial Drive, Stop 9003
Grand Forks, ND 58202-9003

maaker@law.und.edu

Phone (701) 777-6306 ♦ Fax (701) 777-0178 ♦ Web www.law.und.edu/tji

